this place. When near Tecumseh, on the Leavenworth Road, they were attacked by some of the barbarians and taken to the timber. There men then took them a short distance from the camp and shot them through the head, killing Dr. Hunter and Mr. Rossmeyer immediately, and wounding Mr. Gottner in the neck. The desperado then fled. A friendly Indian took this man in charge, nursed his wounds, and assisted him to this place. I am informed by Mr. Shoemaker that each of these men came to the Territory from believers in the National Democratic faith. Alas! they have been most bloodily "addled."

The Disposition of the Pro-Slavery Camp at Middle Creek.

LAWRENCE, Kansas, Friday, Sept. 5, 1856.

The following statement of Captain J. B. Carne, giving an account of the dispersion of the Pro-Slavery camp at Middle Creek, and of the sacking and burning of Osawatomie, will interest your readers:

"On Wednesday, the 27th of August, after marching from Osawatomie about eight miles, we there encountered and took prisoner of the Pro-Slavery scouts. We then proceeded to Middle Creek, where the main body were encamped. Before reaching there we saw and chased seven of their men, and caught four of them. They had Gaskins Ferrance, a Free-State man, prisoner, with them. We pursued the remaining three to the camp. One of them, the captain, on reaching the camp, cried "to arms." They mustered immediately and prepared for battle. Our men immediately dashed in among them, firing but four rounds before the enemy fled. The enemy fired about twenty-five shots in us, none which took effect. The enemy left horses, wagons, camp utensils, and the captain's jug of whisky, and a dinner they had just prepared. They numbered in all about 75 men, a part of whom were said to be absent at the time. Our force consisted of 35 men. We took thirteen prisoners; the balance of the enemy fled the Sugar Creek. We pursued them on the following day to Sugar Creek, but found no one there. On Friday we returned to Osawatomie. On Saturday morning about 8 o'clock, it was reported that an army of ruffians were in the district. Mr. Fredrick Brown, who was preparing to start for Lawrence, was waylaid going for his saddle from one neighbor's house to another's, and shot dead. A messenger came in, stating that they were marching rapidly for the town, with a force of from 200 to 300 men.

They marched down to within 400 yards of the town and drew up in line of battle. They were then fired upon by the Free-State men—being a force of thirty, under the command of Capt. John Brown, with 15 men, and Capt. J. E. Ozeni, with 15 men. We fired upon them and kept them in check for half an hour. They brought their cannon to bear upon us, and fired briskly upon us with little effect. The ammunition of my company having become exhausted, I deemed it prudent to retreat, and ordered my men to cross to the opposite bank of the Marie De Cygne. Capt. Brown's men, a portion of them, swam the river.

There were two Free-State men killed and three wounded. One of the Free-State men who was killed took no part in the affair, and was struck with a spirit-lever the day before yesterday, and thus lost his life in the service of liberty. They then proceeded to plunder and fire the buildings. Eighteen buildings were burned. The women and children were driven to the woods for protection and shelter. They took some seventy-five head of cattle, twelve horses, and five wagon loads of plunder. Here then, disarmed, taking with them their dead and wounded. I learn from those who assisted them in loading their dead and wounded that there were nine killed and four wounded. I saw seven men fall myself. I had put one cartridge left, which I reserved. Taken at least four of my men who stood near me, who had a few cartridges left, to direct their fire at a flag that was held up by a gentleman who seemed to be in command. In all of the fights the enemy fired at my men. My men fired four rounds, and brought down one of them."

Rev. Woodson's Letter to the Kansas State Committee—Letter from the Committee to Col. Cook—Visit from the Committee—Sack Massacre—Another Free-Soiler Gone.

Special Correspondence of the N.-Y. Daily Times.

LAWRENCE, Kansas, Friday, Sept. 5, 1856.

The following and preceding letters of Chairman Woodson to our General Committee, dated Sept. 8, in answer to one of the 24, from the Committee, detailing the dispersion of the man-hunting parties in our midst, I have not been able to furnish to-day, and as another correspondent from this place has already sent it, I will omit the copy and state a few facts proving its fidelity.

Gen. Lane has not "recently searched into the Territory a large body of armed men." Not ever twenty were with him any part of the time, from Nebraska line to Topeka.

No party of men from the North has ever arrived in Kansas "avowedly for the purpose of subverting by force the regularly established Government of the Territory."

"At the time these men arrived in our midst, everything was" now "comparatively peaceable and quiet." The Blue-lights had long before adopted a system, having its base of operations in Missouri, for driving every Free-State man from Kansas, and their line of "block-houses or forts," filled with stores and munitions of war, extended from the Osage to the north line near St. Mary's.

No "lawless military combinations" have ever existed in Kansas, except those claiming the badge of the Territorial militia.

No "law-abiding citizens" were ever attacked in Franklin—only a log-house, occupied as an arsenal by a new party of Southern blood-hounds. No houses were burnt.

The "New-Georgia Colony" were a band of thieves and murderers, occupying but one house—that was burnt.

The gang in the house of "J. P. Sampson, Esq., one of the oldest and best citizens of Douglas County," had most cowardly murdered Hoyt and Williams, had turned our houses and driven away our men, threatening to overrun the entire country. We marched upon them, intending to shoot every devil of them—but they ran. We killed no man at the attack on the party with Col. Treus, but a cold corpse was found in the house, supposed to have been that of one of the party our men detected and fired upon the night previous, while they were stealing horses.

These are some of the shameless falsehoods contained in his letter signed as the "Aping Governor." We all wonder that he is a smarter man than Shannon, consequently knows how to do as more harm.

We have sent another letter of later date to Col. Cook alone, but he has not yet answered it. It has been intimated that he is too crusty and consequential to give us a frank answer, but I would not do him the injustice to say such was true. He appeared like a model Southern gentleman, and I presume he will answer the letter at his earliest convenience. I inclose a copy, as follows:

LAWRENCE, Kansas, Sept. 8, 1856.

Col. Cook, Commander U. S. Forces at Lawrence:

DEAR SIR: The Free-State men of Kansas are now in arms for the purpose of protecting their property from destruction, and the lives of themselves and families from the inhuman atrocities of organized bands of assassins from an adjacent State. Appeals to the civil authorities have proved fruitless. As a last resort, and to avert the impending evil, we appeal to the authority you possess. We respectfully represent that our ranks are composed of bona fide citizens of Kansas, and none other. To satisfy you of the truth of this averment, we invite you in person to visit and inspect our ranks. If any other method of proof of this fact would be more acceptable to you, it will be equally convenient for us. We ask you to assure us protection for our lives and property, and to that end, that you disperse, or cause to be dispersed, the band of house-burners, horse-stealers, and murderers, from Missouri, known as the Kansas militia, now assembled at Indianola, on the Ft. Riley road, at Lecompton, near your camp, at some point on the Santa Fé road, at Paola and other places. If this shall be done, we will lay down our arms and thankfully resume our ordinary occupations.

If you do not possess power to do this, perhaps you might feel at liberty to insist that the war be conducted on principles generally recognized among Christian belligerents as just and honorable, prohibiting the destruction of the property of inoffensive and defenseless persons.

In behalf of the Kansas State Central Committee,

H. MILES MOORE,
WM. HUTCHINSON.

P. S. Inclosed we send, if necessary to decide this question, by an appeal to arms, whether we are a peaceable people or lawless banditti.

H. M. M.
W. H.

Yesterday about fifty dragoons came into town, led by Maximilian Tecumseh. The officer inquired for Lane, Walker, Carver, the Central Committee, and others but our town was unusually Know-Nothing just then. He could hear nothing of them, only he found one boy who said he had seen Lane going towards Iowa with a cannon under his arm. They stayed about two hours, but found no one. Tecumseh was angry—the troops bit their lips to suppress a smile. Donaldson tried to read something in the street that appeared to be a Proclamation, but the bystanders all walked rapidly away and left him and, on seeing that no one heard him, he put up his papers. Lastly the sword gave three groans for Donaldson and three cheers for the troops, which they recognized by waving their hats and caps.

In the afternoon, yesterday, 150 of our men, under Col. Harvey, were dispatched to the opposite side of the River to search for a moving camp reported to be near Lecompton, but they have returned, to-night, without coming in contact with any large force. A most shocking murder came to our knowledge yesterday. On Tuesday, three gentlemen named Gaskins, Branson and ——, all citizens of Leavenworth, left that place for Lawrence. Above night they were seized by seven Southern ruffians, when about half way to this place, and ordered back to their camp near Easton. They were searched, and the seven were armed. They obeyed, and started for the camp. There these gentlemen were ordered to march in front of three of the horsemen, and when in that exposed position, the word was given—"fire." They did so, and the prisoners fell. It was nearly dark, and as their victims all appeared to be dead, the murderers rode on. Some time afterwards Mr. Gozzner came to, and realizing his precarious condition saw his companions both dead by his side, and himself dangerously wounded in the head. Almost miraculously he crawled away, and after wandering two nights and one day, he dragged himself into town yesterday morning—looking more like dead than alive—with his face frightfully torn and burnt with powder, scarcely able to speak. He is now lying in our hospital—well cared for. Such, citizens of the East, is our security to life in Kansas,—such is Squatter Sovereignty as dealt out to us by Pierce & Co. Leavenworth has now lost seven of her best men within a few days, and hundreds have left and gone down the River.

To-day has set another jewel in our crown. This morning about 500 men from all parts of the Territory, under Gen. Lane, marched from Lawrence to Lecompton. This is the first earnest intention we have had of attacking them. Our cavalry, commanded by Col. Walker, followed the main road and took a position south of the town. The infantry and artillery took the river road and marched upon the town from the east. Everything was well arranged, and our men appeared firmly, all resolved to win or perish. Just as our lines of battle were well formed and a contest seemed inevitable, Col. Cook's command, including about 200 cavalry and several pieces of artillery, came hurrying to the scene and formed a short distance on the left of our cavalry. We saw at a glance the result. They were there to prevent a collision. They sent a Committee to Gen. Lane to confer for peace, and after due consideration another bloodless victory was achieved. They said all our citizens held as prisoners in Lecompton, numbering some fifteen, should be unconditionally released, and they agree to disband. Gen. Lane consented, adding that we intended to march towards Leavenworth tomorrow. We will have one to store-house of provisions. As much would fight rather than starve. Leavenworth post must be open to us. There are reports of another party of Missourians near Lawrence.

RANDOLPH.

Gen. Richardson Taken Prisoner by Lane and Discharged—Terror of the Citizens of Leavenworth—Gov. Geary Arrived—Probable Peaceful Settlement of the Disturbances.

From the St. Louis Democrat, Sept. 12.

Mr. Hial Irish, a native of Pontiac, Michigan, reached our city yesterday afternoon by Jefferson City and the Pacific Railroad, having left the city of Leavenworth on Tuesday evening, the 9th. From him we have gained the following important information respecting the condition of things in Kansas. On the same evening of his departure from Leavenworth, the people of that city were in a state of great consternation at reports that were flying about that Lane contemplated an attack upon the city that night. A lot of Government wagons had been placed on the outskirts, so as to quite encircle the city, and in some places where the spaces between the wagons were rather wide, rough board fences had been put up. The Mayor of the city had sent word up to the fort, and demanded assistance from the troops. As Mr. Irish was leaving, he learned that four companies of the troops had been detailed under the orders of Gen. Fessenden F. Smith, and were marching down to put the town under guard and keep off the expected enemies. This alarm and great precaution was somewhat amusing to Mr. Irish, as he had learned on the same day from a gentleman direct from Lawrence, that Lane had not moved, nor did he intend to move from his position.

Mr. Irish states that, a few days before his departure, Gen. Richardson, Commander of the Northern Division of the Kansas Militia, had been captured by a squad of Lane's troops. The particulars of the capture he had not heard. Richardson was conveyed to Lawrence, and delivered over to Gen. Lane, who at once restored his arms, and, calling on a small guard, escorted him outside of the town and dismissed him with much courtesy and many expressions of regret at his misfortune. Mr. Irish learned that Gen. Richardson was so pleased with the generosity of his captors, that he declared his intention to wage no more war against them.

The condition of Leavenworth City is truly deplorable. On Monday night last, Mr. Irish states, he was aroused from his bed at the Leavenworth Hotel by cries of the citizens that the Missouri mob were plundering several of the grocery-stores of the place, and that they must be driven out. The citizens gathered in large numbers, but were afraid to interfere, and the gang of marauders under Capt. Miller were permitted to finish their robberies. This Capt. Miller is a notorious gambler and scoundrel, and has under his command a small gang of Missourians and others, who go about pilfering and plundering indiscriminately. The people detest him so heartily that they have expressed their desires that he, with his gang, and Capt. Brown, with his guerillas, should be placed together in the woods, and be permitted to fight it out together. In illustration of the feelings of the inhabitants toward Capt. Miller and his marauders, Mr. Irish relates that on Monday evening, as he was passing along the street, just after the first reports had reached the place that Lane was contemplating an attack, he was addressed by a lady from one of the houses, who asked him what truth there was in the rumor, and what Lane would probably do should the town be taken. He replied that he thought Lane was not coming, but that if he did come, he would do nothing more than drive out the disorderly Missourians. To this she replied, with great emphasis and feeling: "If that's all he will do, I hope to God he will come, and that quickly!"

The Alabamians who are under arms, are exceedingly sick of the country, and are determined to leave. They say they must have money to get away with, and will have it if they have to steal it.

Atchison and Donovan had become disgusted and returned to Missouri. The Pro-Slavery forces under Gen. Reid were very small.

Governor Geary reached Leavenworth City on Tuesday evening. Quite a number of the citizens and men under arms were on the banks, ready to receive some two or three companies of Missourians, which were expected. When they learned that Governor Geary was on board, they called him out. He appeared on the guard and made them a speech of about ten minutes' length, saying among other things, with exclamations attached, he would enforce all the Territorial laws that were Constitutional. The Governor then proceeded up the river and landed at the fort, where he had immediate consultation with Gen. Smith. He stated his intention to proceed to Lawrence in a few days, without any more troops than would suffice for a body-guard.

Disturbances of Attchison, &c.

Extract from a letter dated Leavenworth, Sept. 9.

A dispatch from Atchison's command states that he has fallen back with his forces (1,300) to Westport, to reshoe, preparatory to attacking Lane's camp.

Armed men from all quarters are crowding into this place. The greatest excitement prevails, and nothing is talked of but war. Business is entirely suspended, and all the women and children have been removed. Yesterday, preparations for the defence of the city were completed. Crowded wagons are stationed around the outskirts, to be used as a corral, which contains artillery, to be used against the foe, should occasion arise. The Missourians are encamped outside, and have Mr. Reeder's Major, Sheep, one of the place has been committed to shoulder arms or leave. Some of the merchants have boxed up their goods and went down off. There is not a single Free-State man left in the town.

THE BALTIMORE RIOTS.

Another of the Wounded Dead—Another Riot between the Plug Uglies and the New-Market Runners.

From the Baltimore American, Sept. 12.

Now that the excitement consequent upon this tragedy has somewhat subsided, we have been enabled to gather the facts connected with its origin. As before stated, the Rip-Rap Club escorted another Club to their head-quarters, on Federal Hill, and were on their way home when the riot began, and had proceeded down Henrietta-street as far as Hanover. There was another party, composed of five young men, who had a flag and drum. While these were passing, one of them, named Buss, made an attack upon a man named Oliver Harlee, with a slung-shot, but he was intercepted at the time. Harlee refused to take any notice of him, and told him to go away. The difficulty would probably have ended here, but James Clary resented the insult offered to Harlee, and in turn assaulted Buss. Several then got to fighting, and one of the five ran after the Rip-Rap Club, and requested them to come back. A large majority of them refused, but about fifteen or twenty of the more disorderly returned with the messenger, and began to throw stones, when the first fire was made from Clark's house. The parties firing the guns and pistols were James E. Clark, William Clary, James Clary, David Sauer, John Carter, John Hawlows, and three others whose names we could not learn. All of those above named have been arrested, except Sauer, whose wound is of such a nature that he cannot be removed.

The streets on Saturday, in the neighborhood of the scene of riot, presented a desolate appearance, and all the houses showed marks of violence. The front of the house No. 57 Warren-street, in front of which John Hare was shot, shows the marks of twenty-two balls, two of which passed through the window. The house adjoining, and that on the corner is also well perforated with bricks, shot and bullets.

The frame house on the southwest corner of Light and Henrietta streets is completely covered with marks of stones and bricks, some of which were thrown with such force as to split the weather boarding. The rain spout shows the mark of one large bullet, which passed through it and stuck in the thigh of a young man named Thomas Seward, who was standing on the opposite side of Light-street, near Montgomery.

Clark's house, before which the affray began, bears not one mark of violence.

We called yesterday evening at the houses where the more seriously wounded are, and found that they were still alive except one. James T. Carlin was rapidly sinking, having had a severe hemorrhage for several hours. Daniel Sumner was somewhat easier, but no hope is entertained for him. Wm. Jones, the young man reported dead, but who had only swooned from loss of blood, revived somewhat, but is still in a critical condition. Fredrick Albright, the lad who was shot through the lungs, after suffering extreme agony until Sunday morning, died, mortification having supervened. Levi Kelly is beyond all hope, his wound being of such a character as to render recovery almost impossible.

All the others, as far as we could learn, are getting along comfortably.

Early Saturday morning the watch, by order of the Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, proceeded to the residence of James E. Clark, and arrested him on the charge of having been engaged in the riot, and with being a partisan or friend to the murder of John Hare, as well for keeping deadly weapons concealed on his premises. James Clary and William Clary, also of the Clark party, were arrested, and the whole of them committed to jail.

The following are the names of several other parties who were wounded during the affray, none of whom, like those mentioned above, were mere spectators:

Charles Sherman, who resides on Light-street, near Montgomery, received a buckshot through his eye, producing only a slight wound.

Edward Gibbons, a lad about 16 years of age, received a ball in his arm, which passed through above his elbow.

Hanson E. Gaus, a young man from Cincinnati, who had only arrived in the city on Friday morning, and was, resting at the time, received a ball in his left wrist, causing a painful wound.

Furniss Harlow received some twenty buckshot in different parts of his body. His injuries are not dangerous.

Michael Marshall received two wounds—one in the throat and another in the hip—which are not dangerous.

John Hare, the young man, who was shot, was about thirty years of age, and highly respected as a quiet and inoffensive man. The ball passed directly through his heart, causing almost instant death. He lived in a street near Washington, the same in which Clark lives, in a house two doors from Clark's house, at a distance of full seven hundred yards. Clark, one of the parties arrested, is charged with firing a musket in that direction at the moment the young old man fell. He has been arrested, and will of course be tried for the murder.

On Saturday night another party named John Hollywell was arrested on the charge of being engaged in the riot, and committed to jail.

We called at the Southern District Police Station, where the arms taken from the premises of Clark are kept. They consist of a swivel loaded half way to the muzzle, one loaded musket, one empty musket, one double-barreled gun, several home-made swords and four cavalry sabres.

The swivel was placed near the door and it was intended to put a match to it in the event of an attack being made on the house.

The whole affair originated through the instrumentality of Buss, who made the first assault, and had he been arrested on the spot, the innocent victims who have lost their lives or who are now on beds of suffering would have escaped.

MORE OF WHAT LOOKED BEFORE—THIRD RIOT.

Between 5 and 6 o'clock on Friday afternoon, a difficulty occurred between several persons on West Lombard-street, between Amity and Paca-streets, which was one of them, James P. Carson, had a pistol loaded with slug shot. At the time the pistol was discharged it was at Michael Tom Wilkins, about six years of age, who stood upon the pavement in front of his house. Several of the slugs struck the steps and one of them ricocheted the child in the head, but fortunately took effect in near the top of the cranium as to glance off without doing other injury than creating a slight flesh wound. Officers James and Manly immediately arrested Wilkins and conveyed him to the office of Justice Gaul, where he underwent an examination and was committed to jail to answer the offence before the Criminal Court.

After Wilkins had been committed to jail, and while the officers were conveying him thither, an attempt was made by some of his friends to take him away from the officers. This attempt was unsuccessful, and after the accused had been safely confined, officers C. Brown and James returned to the place where the attempt was made and arrested a man named John Morrissey, on the charge of attempting the rescue of the prisoner and resisting the officers in the discharge of their duty. Justice Gaul committed him to jail in default of $500 bail to answer the charge before the Criminal Court.

ANOTHER RIOT BETWEEN PLUG UGLIES AND THE NEW MARKET RUNNERS.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock on Saturday morning, another disgraceful riot occurred in the vicinity of the Lexington market, which was kept up for some time with pistols, musketts and brickbats. The parties to the fight were the Plug Uglies and a political club attached to or congregating about the New Market Engine house, the opposing club being of the American Party, and attached to or congregating about the Mount Vernon Hook and Ladder Company, between whom a bitter feud has existed for some time.

The riot, as far as we could learn commenced at the Lexington market, one of the parties retreating to the New-Market engine house, in front and from the windows of which the fight took place, a great number of shots having been fired, but so far as can be ascertained no one was seriously injured. Another statement is that the Plug Uglies had threatened to sack the engine house during the night, and that the parties in the house armed themselves for its defence, waiting an attack.

Several arrests were made by the officers, which were entered upon the books of the western watch station, as follows: David Hooge, charged with shooting a musket from the corner of Eutaw and Lexington streets. John Gorman, Henry Varon, Joseph Kuhnan, and George Thomas, charged with being in the New-Market Engine House, and firing from the same with muskets. James Donaldson, charged with pursuing the affray with a gun, pistol and sword. The accused were all held to bail for a further examination by Justice Hawkins.

ANOTHER DISGRACEFUL RIOT.

We noticed on Saturday the fact of a riot having occurred in Canal-street on Friday afternoon, in which pistols and bowie-knives were used, but which resulted in no serious injury to any of the parties. About five o'clock on the same night, the parties again met at the corner of Canal and Fayette-streets, and the fracas was renewed with more serious consequences. During the affray a young man named John Hardy was stabbed in the abdomen, producing a dangerous wound, and from which it is doubtful if he will recover. He was also struck on the head with a brick, from which he received a severe contusion. Two others of the same party named James Nelson and Lewis Dorsey, were knocked down with bricks and severely injured. A few seconds prior to the affray the members of the Lafayette Fire Company had a fisticuff club known as the Fusees, and had determined to settle it by a resort to battle. Officers Rose and Mason, of the Eastern District, apprehending trouble, remained in the neighborhood, and when the fight began, at the peril of their own lives rushed in and succeeded in quelling it before further mischief was done.

STILL ANOTHER RIOT.

Between twelve o'clock and daylight yesterday morning, another disturbance occurred on Pace-street, near Baltimore-street, when a man named Patrick Ready was shot in the face with a pistol ball. The ball took effect on the upper part of the nose and glanced upwards and out at the forehead, creating a flesh wound, which is not considered dangerous. The wound was dressed by Dr. E. D. Baer. The origin of the affray, like the many others which have occurred during the past three days, is attributed to party feeling. No arrests were made.

AMUSEMENTS.

Academy of Music.—A very satisfactory performance of "Norma" was given last night to a fine and fashionable house. Mme. La Grange was in excellent voice—especially in the earlier portion of the opera—and was ably seconded by Mme. Strakosch, a lady whose neat and artistic singing ought to give her a permanent position at the Academy of Music. Signor Crescia appeared as Pollio, and did all that was to be expected from that unsatisfactory part. He is a tenor of unquestionable promise.

On Wednesday the "Trovatore" will be given for the last time this season, and then the house will be closed for a week, in order to give time for the final rehearsals of "L'Etoile du Nord."

Mr. Hackett—Academy of Music.—The Shakespearian Company, under the direction of Mr. Hackett, will give their last performance to-night, at the Academy of Music. The "Merry Wives of Windsor" will be played, with the strong cast of Mr. Hackett's Star Company.

Burton's Theatre.—Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davenport commenced an engagement here last night, and were very properly greeted by an overwhelming house. The American stage can boast no better actor than Mr. Davenport; the quietude, ease and impressiveness of his style leave little to be desired, and his conceptions are generally marked by sound literary judgment and acumen. Mrs. Davenport liberally shares the excellence of her husband, but she seems to have acquired a more boisterous method during the few months of her absence, and in consequence has not advanced in her profession. The "Hunchback" was strongly cast, and with the artists we have mentioned in the two leading roles, backed up by Powers, Burnett and Setchell, creditably played.

Bowery Theatre.—Mr. Brougham revived his famous "Metamora" travesty last night with considerable success. After the vivacity and wit of "Pocahontas," this earlier work seems somewhat tamely. Its principal merit lies in the amusing imitations of Forrest, which Mr. Brougham gives with much effect. There are but few local hits in the piece, and the dialogue is rather "spun out," and lacks the proverbial brevity for which wit is celebrated. The burlesque was only moderately played—a lack of study being more or less observable in all the impersonators. It has been nicely put upon the stage, and cannot fail to amuse an audience at all familiar with the scenes and grievances of the "great tragedian."

Chambers-street Theatre.—This favorite place of amusement having been leased by Mr. Rose, was opened last night for a brief season. The company appears to be respectable—headed by Mr. and Mrs. Rose, Mr. E. Jonasson, Miss Ravenscroft, Mr. C. Hale, Mr. Grosvenor, and some members of the Broadway company. The play was "Othello," in which Mr. Rose sustained the part of the Moor in a highly creditable manner, supported by Mr. Jonasson as Iago. The tragedy went off smoothly, and the efforts of those engaged in it received much of the applause bestowed on them.

The house was well filled, and it was very evident from the demonstrations which we saw and heard that the friends with whom Mr. Rose was so popular in the Bowery are determined to sustain him in his new enterprise. There is a good bill for to-night.

AFFAIRS IN RUSSIA.

ENTRY OF THE CZAR INTO MOSCOW.

NEWS FROM INDIA, CHINA AND AUSTRALIA.

LATEST COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

The U. S. mail steamer Arctic, Captain Lewis, from Liverpool, at 11 o'clock A. M. on Wednesday the 3d of Sept. arrived at this port yesterday afternoon.

The Cunard steamer Africa, from Liverpool on the 4th, arrived at Boston on Sunday. By these two arrivals we receive details of European news and full files to the latter date.

The London Morning Post has the following: "We believe we may say that in some quarters it is expected Hon. C. F. Vernon, brother of Lord Clarendon, will be appointed to succeed to Washington. What grounds exist for this supposition we are unable to state."

The Liverpool Post of the 2d has says: "We stated, on Saturday week, that the Central American question was settled; and we have now authority for saying that the treaty only waits the ratification of the respective Governments. We are also in a condition to state that Hon. Mr. Vizetelly has been appointed British minister at Washington."

We read in the London Daily News: "The Central American difficulty is positively stated to have received a satisfactory solution in a convention and treaty said to have been signed between Honduras and Great Britain. The leading features of the arrangement are understood to be transferred by the protectorate of the Mosquito Territory, and the freedom of its terminal ports against our erection of Russian and the other two small islands, in recognition of the equitable claim of the small State upon those dependencies. If this be correct, the large question which has so long easily lodged angry and serious enough, has thus been cheaply and quietly disposed of, without the actionable intervention of America."

According to the London Morning Post the Conservative party in England are again preparing for a numerous contest—a contest possibly leading to the removal of Lord Palmerston and on the amendment of the system of government without a party in Parliament or anywhere else in Great. The Standard says: "We have the mortification of such a party in simple form, but we regret, and that and admit, but the policy of the Palmerston Government and its abettors is not to be such that party by prescription, still has to be a party to the commencement. Time, however, and an increasing conviction, the reasons are sufficient to the reasons of the Government, the reasons are sufficient to the reasons of the Government, the reasons are sufficient to the reasons of the Government

FLOUR AND MEAL—The market for State and Western Flour is unsettled. The Arabia's news is less encouraging than had been anticipated. This circumstance renews the sagacity of factors to realize, and while inducing much caution among purchasers, has produced some hesitancy. The sales these days last do not exceed 6,000 bbls., in lots, mainly at at prices within the annexed range:

Ordinary State	$5 00@$5 20
Straight State	5 20@ 5 40
Favorite and Extra State	5 40@ 5 65
Common to Good Indiana & Upper Lake	5 50@ 5 70
Common to Good Ohio	5 40@ 5 70
Fancy Michigan	5 60@ 5 85
Fancy Ohio	5 65@ 5 85
Extra Michigan	5 80@ 7 50
Extra Indiana and Wisconsin	5 80@ 7 75
Extra Ohio	5 80@ 8 00
Fancy Genesee	7 00@ 7 25
Extra Genesee	7 25@ 8 25
Extra Missouri	7 00@ 9 00

Canadian remains quiet at unaltered prices. The transactions since our last including daily a few small lots of ordinary to choice extra, mostly at $5 [illegible]@$7 75 ⅌ bbl. Southern is dull. The sales since our last comprise about 1,500 bbls. Low Mixed to Good Extra at $7 [illegible]@$8 25 and $9 50 ⅌ bbl. Rye Flour is in demand, and is worth $5 [illegible]@$5 [illegible] ⅌ bbl. Corn Meal is in fair supply and request, at $3 [illegible]@$3 [illegible] for Jersey, and $4 [illegible] for Brandywine ⅌ bbl. The latter brings $17@17 50 in purchases.

GRAIN—Wheat, as noticed in our last, closed tamely and languidly on Saturday. To-day factors evinced considerable anxiety to sell, and prices fell off 2c.@3c. ⅌ bushel, but these circumstances did not tempt buyers to purchase freely. Operators have been greatly disappointed by the accounts ⅌ Arabia, and they now wholly lack the confidence which in a measure occasioned the activity and buoyancy perceptible in the market on Friday and Saturday of last week. The receipts are in excess of the immediate requirements of the trade, and on this account their tendency is to increase heaviness and irregularity now apparent. The sales since our last have been confined to about 21,000 bushels, including pretty good Canadian White at $1 [illegible]; prime Western Red at $1 55@$1 56; choice Southern White at $1 70, and Southern Red at $1 57@$1 60 ⅌ bushel. Rye is scarce and wanted. 2,500 bushels were disposed of at 90c. ⅌ bushel. Oats are dull and declining at 35c.@37c. for Ohio and Lake; 36c.@36c. for State; 35c.@36c. for Jersey; and 38c.@39c. for Southern, ⅌ bushel. Barley remains scarce and quiet. It was last sold at $1 25 ⅌ bushel. Corn is decidedly less sought after, and is about 2c. ⅌ bushel lower. The sales reported since our last accounts about 42,000 bushels (here and to arrive) at 67c. for Jersey, for mixed, bushel and stamp; 68c.@70c. for Mixed, 70c.@73c. for Northern and Southern Yellow, and 73c.@75c. for Northern and Southern White, ⅌ bushel. In addition to the sales reported on Saturday, were 75,000 bushels reported for October delivery.

HAY—About 600 bales River were purchased at 80c. @90c. for shipment, and 70c.@80c. for local use, ⅌ 100 lbs.

HOPS—Now remain inactive and depressed; they are now worth only from 12c.@14c. ⅌ lb. Old rule heavy and languid, at 6c.@8c. ⅌ lb.

IRON—About 60 tons Scotch Pig have been disposed of, in lots, at $22, usual terms, ⅌ ton.

LATHS—Have not varied. Eastern, $1 87½ ⅌ M.

LEAD—Is still inactive, at old figures.

LIME—Rockland, rules heavy and languid at 85c. for Common, and $1 20 for Lump, ⅌ bbl.

MOLASSES—Is still lightly dealt in at former quotations. New-Orleans, 56c.@60c.; Porto Rico, 45c.@48c.; Cuba Muscovado, 50c.@54c.; and Clayed Cuba, 37c.@40c. ⅌ gallon.

OILS—Whale, Sperm and Olive are unchanged in demand and value. Linseed is obtainable to a moderate extent at 87c.@90c. for whole lots, and 95c.@$1 for small parcels ⅌ gallon, but the inquiry is limited, buyers purchasing only as they really need supplies. Lard Oil is quiet, yet steady.

PROVISIONS—Pork is in improved request at former prices, with sales reported since our last of about 1,600 bbls., in lots, at $19 [illegible]@$20 for Mess, and $17 62½@$17 75, and, in some instances, $18 for Prime, ⅌ bbl. Cut Meats are moderately inquired for, and are quoted at 5¾c.@8¾c. for Hams, and 8c. @8½c. for Shoulders, ⅌ lb. Bacon is in very light supply and demand, mainly at 11c.@11½c. ⅌ lb. Lard is advancing; supply limited; demand fair. The transactions since our last reach about 300 bbls. Fair to strictly Prime, at 13½c.@13¾c., and 500 kegs at 13½c.@14c. ⅌ lb. Beef is in good request at old figures. The sales since our last consist of 400 bbls. at $8 [illegible] for Country Prime; $8 [illegible]@$9 [illegible] for Country Mess; $8 50@$11 for repacked do., and $11@$12 50 for extra do., ⅌ bbl. Prime Mess Beef is very dull, and it now commands but $14@$17 ⅌ tc. Beef Hams are scarce and quiet, at $19@$21 ⅌ bbl. Butter is salable and firm at 15c.@19c. for Ohio; 18c.@20c. for common to very good State, and 20c.@22c. for prime to very choice do., ⅌ lb. Cheese is in fair supply and request, at from 6c.@9½c. ⅌ lb.

RICE—Continues in moderate demand and is firm at 3¾@4c.@4c 62½ for common to choice, ⅌ 100 lbs.

SUGARS—The demand is pretty good; prices are unchanged. The sales since our last reach about 900 hhds. Cuba, &c., in lots, at from 7½c.@8c. ⅌ lb.

TALLOW—Prime is represented as being in light supply and demand at 11½c.@12c. ⅌ lb.

WHISKY—We heard of sales of about 350 bbls. Ohio and Prison at 30½c.@30¾c. ⅌ gallon.

FREIGHTS—Were less active and rather languid. For Liverpool—Cotton, ¾d.@5-32d. ⅌ lb.; Flour, 2s. ⅌ bbl.; Grain, 7½d.@8½d., in bulk and bags, ⅌ bushel; Resin, 1s. 9d. ⅌ bbl.; Beef, 4s. ⅌ tc.; Tobacco, 25s. ⅌ hhd.; and Heavy Goods, 20s.@35s. 6d. ⅌ ton. For other ports, proportionate quotations.

The first two chapters of it were written by John Quincy Adams. They give a highly interesting account of the youth and early manhood of the second President, down to the time of the Boston Massacre in 1770, which he heard, attended his 25th year. The remainder of the Life is written with singularly ability, and with the advantage of the use of much new material, hitherto unknown to the public. Much new light is thrown upon Mr. ADAMS' relations with HAMILTON, JEFFERSON, PICKERING and other eminent men, and the part he took in the Revolution and formation of the men themselves. The work is one of the most important accessions to our national history that has appeared for many years.

[illegible] Health Officer this day (Monday) reported to the Board that the steamer Augusta, on Saturday, complied with the order to remove to the Quarantine anchorage—that she arrived there about 5 o'clock in the afternoon—that on her arrival the captain, mate and pilot came into his office for further orders, that he made particular inquiries of the three as to the health and condition of Anne Frazee, the purser of the Augusta, who the vessel passed Quarantine on her last trip to the City—that he took the affidavits of the three named and the pilot as to the health, &c., of Frazee on his last arrival at Quarantine.

The Health Officer said that the mate and pilot were that they had long known Frazee; that they had seen him often during the last trip of the Augusta to this City; that they saw him when the vessel arrived at Quarantine; that he was at that time on duty as usual; that they did not observe in him any signs of sickness; and that they do not believe that he was sick at all, or at any rate sick to the knowledge of the mate. The Health Officer further stated that these officers entrusted him that the captain of the Augusta was guilty of no infraction of the health laws on his last arrival, and that the purser must have been mistaken in his statement to the resident physician, Dr. Bronwell.

The Health Officer further stated that the steamer Augusta, when she came to the Quarantine anchorage from the City, was laden with cargo and coal, and was not crowded; that her passengers were on their way to a trip from the City, expecting to go to sea that night.

The Health Officer further says, inasmuch as the mate had been exonerated from all blame relative to the purser's sickness, and inasmuch as the vessel and passengers were ready for sea, and, in his opinion, there was no good reason why they should not have the port, he gave them the usual permit.

The Board asked that generally speaking, he had confidence in these vessels; that they were good officers, active and gentlemanly under Quarantine restrictions and willing to give a full and explicit report in all inquiries necessary to make. Especially, he said, has this been true of the captain of the Augusta.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Daily Times:

In the notice which you recently gave of the history and [illegible] death of Mr. Isaac Rice, you have [illegible] unfortunately drawn his family, great as the sorrow by [illegible] "domestic troubles" as the cause of Mr. Rice's death. There has been no "domestic trouble" [illegible] the long and severe illness of his wife, which, of course, caused him great solicitude, and to which, together with the cares of an extended business, and long personal suffering from aggravated dyspepsia, his friends attribute his unfortunate end. By giving this a prominent insertion you will do his family an act of justice, and greatly oblige yours, &c.

Fatal Runaway Accident—Two Lives Lost.

A runaway accident occurred early on Sunday evening in Union-avenue, near Remsen-street, in the Fifth Ward, which resulted in the loss of two lives. WILLIAM DONNELLY, residing in Bedford, accompanied by his two young boys, was riding in a wagon when his horse took fright and ran upon the sidewalk; the wagon came in contact with a stoop, and then struck an aged lady named MARY SCHNEIDER, who was walking along, and killed her almost instantly. The two boys were thrown violently to the sidewalk, and one of them had his skull fractured, from which injury he died a few hours afterward. The other lad was badly cut about the face. Mr. DONNELLY escaped with but slight injuries.

☞ The first parade, since the Fourth of July, of the 6th Regiment—the "National Guard"—took place last night. The line was formed at 9 o'clock, on Lafayette-place. The effect by moonlight was very fine.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

THE RIOT IN CHATHAM-STREET ON SUNDAY MORNING.

In relation to our account of the riot that occurred on Sunday morning, near the corner of Chatham and Duane-streets, we have received the following communication:

NEW-YORK, Monday, Sept 15, 1856.

Editor of The New-York Daily Times:

SIR: In your issue of this date, under "Police Intelligence," you give a report of a disturbance in Chatham and Duane streets. You state that members of Engine Company No. 21 were engaged therein. I desire that you will contradict such statement. I positively assert that no member of said Company was in any way whatever in the matter. There was no doubt a party of a disturbance that occurred between Engine Companies but that the name of this Company and its members are dragged before the public, as being connected with it. It seems that some portion of the press, or those from whom it receives information, entertain an animosity against this company, and they are thus held up to the public in an unenviable light, to have obloquy cast upon them, doubtless for some ulterior purpose.

I have taken much trouble to investigate this matter. In reference to the female knocked down (who is the wife of Mr. John Dunn, a member of Engine Co. 21,) I am informed from a reliable source, that she was returning home from visiting up with a sick friend. That many persons who knew her said: "There goes that nice person who knocks her husband down by several persons and kicked. One of these persons said, "Go tell your leader of a husband that we done it, and we'll mash his big head."

Many of the night-brawlers who live in the Sixth Ward, most of course, according to some persons be-[illegible] of No. 21. The Company which I have the honor to command, for more than two months last past has not been in service, and they utterly repudiate any connection with these disturbers of the peace.

Respectfully Yours, JAMES LEONARD,

Foreman Engine Company No. 21.

COUNTERFEITERS AND IMPOSTERS.—The public are cautioned against purchasing articles pretending to be of the nature of the "Balm of Thousand Flowers," for performing the breath and beautifying the complexion. LONG ISLAND.

The Late Outrage in Kings County.

JACKSON and DIXSON, the parties arrested some weeks ago, and held to bail on a charge of committing a brutal outrage upon the persons of two immigrant girls at Sheepshead Bay, taken by them from the ship City of Brooklyn, at the foot of Pike-street, New-York, have been surrendered by their bail, and are now confined in Kings County Jail, where they will remain, probably, until their trial takes place.

The complainants in this case, as was originally stated, were bailed and spirited away for the purpose of defeating the ends of justice. One returned voluntarily, upon seeing the accounts in the New-York papers, and the other was found near Baltimore, Md., at the residence of an uncle. They were taken away by F. H. DIEKMAN, Esq., and a man named Peter MOSBIRON, who paid the two $45 to leave. Both are now where they can be had as witnesses when wanted.

Had it not been for the great publicity given to this transaction, the abused parties undoubtedly never would have been brought to trial, and with the witnesses out of the way no indictment could have been found against them. The parties have all been secured through the exertions of Captain THOMAS KING and Officer JOHN FULTON, of the Second District Police, Brooklyn, backed up by Mayor HALL and Judge MORRIS. Mayor HINCKEN, of Baltimore, and Officer COLLADAY, of that city, rendered important service.

JACKSON and DIXSON when arrested had made all of their arrangements to banish themselves to parts unknown, and were much surprised at the interruption of the officers in pursuit of them.

Dr. Crane.

This gentleman, who is sick with the yellow fever in New Utrecht, had some favorable symptoms yesterday morning, and slight hopes are now entertained of his recovery. Dr. DUSSOS, who decline Saturday, was his partner, and both, up to the time of their sickness, were indefatigable in their exertions among the sick at Fort Hamilton and vicinity.
